

The Oriole' song

On the long way of life
You'd like to find your place
You need someone to love
Put a smile on your face

Be what you are, truly
You must stop crying tears
You are so beautiful
Far away from your fears

I know that you have heard
Lost in the Galaxy
The song far from its bird
Looking for its country

Your quest can't be the Earth
Not wide enough for your dream
Fly into the Universe
One day you'll meet your team

*Under the green shade of the deep forest
You can hear the oriole singing
The oriole's song is in a place
Even deeper*

Your only wealth is Heart
You must open your eyes
You'll meet into the dark
So many butterflies

Sweetness is your weapon
Tenderness your army
Time to declare war on
Your inner enemy

*Under the green shade of the deep forest
You can hear the oriole singing
The oriole's song is in a place
Even deeper*

You know I'm by your side
You can rely on me
Together we can ride
On a new love story

On the long way of life
You'd like to find your place
You need someone to love
Put a smile on your face

*Under the green shade of the deep forest
You can hear the oriole singing
The oriole's song is in a place
Even deeper*
